INFORMATION ABOUT THE MARINE CORPS LEAGUE

Detachment 14 - Fresno is an active, non-profit organization of active duty, former and retired Marines, and associates. The purpose of the Detachment is to further the principles and traditions of the U. S. Marine Corps in concert with contributing to the well being of the communities of the San Joaquin (Central) Valley of California. Detachment goals are:

- Assistance to Marines and Navy corpsmen and chaplains (former and active), and their families
- Ceremonial assistance in the form of color and honor guards, and burial details
- Joint social and support activities with local Marines, Marine Reserves and their families
- Fund raising activities in support of the goals presented above

The Detachment generally meets at 9:00 a.m. on the fourth Saturday of each month at the Clovis Veteran's Memorial Building, Hughes and 5th Streets, Clovis, California. Further information may be obtained from the detachment web site: www.mcldet14.org.
